Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

LESSON 1

1 La Ropa: Clothes and Colours

Name what people wear, say what it is made of, and make colours agree.

Key ideas

Always learn a noun with its article: el jersey, la falda, los zapatos, las botas. The article tells you masculine or feminine, singular or plural.

Colours come after the noun and agree with it: una camiseta blanca, unos zapatos negros, unas botas negras.

Colours ending in -e or a consonant (azul, verde, gris) have one form for masculine and feminine: una falda azul, un jersey azul. Add -s (or -es) for plural: unos zapatos azules.

Say what something is made of with de + material: una camisa de algodón, un gorro de lana, unas botas de cuero, una corbata de seda.

Patterns work the same way: una camisa de rayas (striped), una falda de cuadros (checked).

Llevar means to wear: Llevo una camiseta blanca. It is the safest verb for the writing task.

Spanish	English	Spanish	English
el jersey	sweater	la falda	skirt
los zapatos	shoes	la corbata	tie
el traje	suit	el vestido	dress
las botas	boots	la camisa	shirt
la camiseta	T-shirt	los pantalones	trousers
la chaqueta	jacket	el abrigo	coat
el sombrero	hat	las gafas de sol	sunglasses

DID YOU KNOW?

blanco, negro, rojo, verde, amarillo, azul, gris, marrón, rosa, naranja: rosa and naranja never change. You say una camiseta rosa and unos zapatos rosa.

Check yourself

- [ ] What are the four words for 'the' and when do you use each?
- [ ] Write a white T-shirt in Spanish.
- [ ] Write black boots in Spanish.
- [ ] How do you say 'a silk tie'?
- [ ] Does azul change for masculine and feminine?

REVISION TASK

Draw an outfit and label every item in Spanish with its article, its colour and its material.

LESSON 2

2 Same Thing, Different Word

Spanish changes from country to country. Know both versions and you cannot be caught out.

Key ideas

Spanish is spoken in more than 20 countries and the vocabulary is different in Spain and in Latin America.

Clothing: el jersey (Spain) = el suéter (Latin America). Las gafas = los lentes / anteojos. La camiseta = la playera (Mexico) / la remera (Argentina). Los vaqueros = los jeans.

Shorts: pantalones cortos (Spain) = short / pantalonetas (Latin America).

Travel: el billete = el boleto / el pasaje. La maleta = la valija (Argentina). El coche = el carro / el auto.

Bus: el autobús is understood everywhere. El camión (Mexico), la guagua (Caribbean) and el colectivo (Argentina) are local words.

In the exam, both versions are accepted (the paper says to accept appropriate regional Spanish). Learn one word for each idea and recognise the other.

English	Spain	Latin America
sweater	el jersey	el suéter
glasses	las gafas	los lentes / anteojos
T-shirt	la camiseta	la playera / la remera
jeans	los vaqueros	los jeans
ticket	el billete	el boleto / el pasaje
luggage	la maleta	la valija / la maleta
car	el coche	el carro / el auto

DID YOU KNOW?

Both el jersey and el suéter appear in the exam vocabulary, so know that they mean the same thing.

Check yourself

- [ ] Give the Spain and Latin America words for 'ticket'.
- [ ] What is la remera and where is it used?
- [ ] Name two other words for 'bus'.
- [ ] What does los lentes mean?
- [ ] If an exam answer uses el boleto, is it wrong?

REVISION TASK

Make a two-column poster: five Spain words on the left and their Latin American partners on the right.

LESSON 3

3 Este, Ese, Aquel: Pointing Words

Spanish has three distances, not two. Match the word to the distance and to the noun.

Key ideas

Demonstratives work like a pointing finger. They agree with the noun in gender and number and go before it.

Close to me (aquí): este, esta, estos, estas = this / these.

Medium distance (ahí / allí, nearer the listener): ese, esa, esos, esas = that / those.

Far from both of us (allá): aquel, aquella, aquellos, aquellas = that / those over there.

Memory rhyme from class: "This and These have T's, That and Those don't." (t: este, esta, estos, estas.)

Pick the form in two steps: 1) how far away is it? 2) is the noun masculine/feminine, singular/plural?

Distance	Masc. sing.	Fem. sing.	Masc. pl.	Fem. pl.
Close (this/these)	este jersey	esta falda	estos zapatos	estas botas
Medium (that/those)	ese jersey	esa falda	esos zapatos	esas botas
Far (that/those over there)	aquel jersey	aquella falda	aquellos zapatos	aquellas botas

DID YOU KNOW?

Example from class: Me gusta esta camiseta pero prefiero esos pantalones. The T-shirt is close, the trousers are further away.

Check yourself

- [ ] Write this skirt and that skirt (far away) in Spanish.
- [ ] Which form goes with botas at medium distance?
- [ ] Why is it aquellos zapatos and not aquella zapatos ?
- [ ] Which Spanish words mean 'here', 'there' and 'over there'?
- [ ] What does the rhyme about T's help you remember?

REVISION TASK

Look around your room. Write six sentences about objects at three different distances, using este / ese / aquel correctly.

LESSON 4

4 Ponerse and Llevar: Getting Dressed

Say what you put on and what you are wearing, with the right reflexive pronoun.

Key ideas

Poner = to put something somewhere: Pongo el libro en la mesa.

Ponerse = to put clothes on yourself: Me pongo el abrigo. A reflexive verb always has a small pronoun: me, te, se, nos, se.

yo me pongo · tú te pones · él/ella se pone · nosotros nos ponemos · ellos se ponen.

The pronoun matches the person: me goes with yo, te with tú, se with él/ella/ellos, nos with nosotros.

Dialogue from class: ¿Qué te pones para la fiesta? — Me pongo un vestido rojo y tacones.

Llevar describes what you are wearing now: Llevo unos zapatos negros. (Present tense: llevo, llevas, lleva, llevamos, llevan.)

Person	ponerse	llevar
yo	me pongo	llevo
tú	te pones	llevas
él / ella	se pone	lleva
nosotros	nos ponemos	llevamos
ellos	se ponen	llevan

DID YOU KNOW?

To wear every day, use llevar. To put on (the action of getting dressed), use ponerse.

Check yourself

- [ ] What is the difference between poner and ponerse ?
- [ ] Write the whole present tense of ponerse .
- [ ] Which pronoun goes with nosotros ?
- [ ] Say 'You (tú) put on the coat' in Spanish.
- [ ] Which verb do you use for 'I am wearing a white T-shirt'?

REVISION TASK

Write a mini dialogue (4 lines) where two friends say what they put on for a party.

LESSON 5

5 At the Shop

Buy something, ask for a size, ask the price and understand the answer.

Key ideas

Start with Busco (I am looking for): Busco una camiseta blanca.

The shop assistant asks ¿Qué talla necesita? (What size do you need?). You answer: La M, por favor. Sizes: S, M, L.

grande (big/large) and pequeño/a (small). Compare with más … que: Una L es más grande que una S.

Ask the price with ¿Cuánto cuesta? and answer with Cuesta + number + euros: Cuesta treinta euros. For more than one item use cuestan.

Numbers to know: diez 10, veinte 20, treinta 30, cuarenta 40, cincuenta 50, sesenta 60, setenta 70, ochenta 80, noventa 90, cien 100.

Useful finishers: Aquí tiene (here you are), Gracias, Son … euros (that is … euros).

Who	Says	Means
Customer	Busco una falda azul.	I am looking for a blue skirt.
Assistant	¿Qué talla necesita?	What size do you need?
Customer	¿Cuánto cuesta?	How much does it cost?
Assistant	Cuesta cuarenta euros.	It costs forty euros.
Assistant	Son cuarenta euros.	That is forty euros.

DID YOU KNOW?

In a dialogue gap-fill, read the whole sentence first. The answer often appears nearby: Cuesta treinta ___ must be euros.

Check yourself

- [ ] How do you say 'I am looking for a green jumper'?
- [ ] What question asks the price?
- [ ] Write 'It costs sixty euros'.
- [ ] What does ¿Qué talla necesita? mean?
- [ ] Complete: Una L es más ___ que una S.

REVISION TASK

Role-play with a friend: one is the customer, one is the assistant. Use at least five phrases from this lesson.

LESSON 6

6 El Viaje: Trip Vocabulary

Airport, hotel, beach and weather: the words you need to plan a holiday.

Key ideas

Things to carry: la maleta (suitcase), el pasaporte (passport), el billete / el boleto (ticket), el mapa (map), la cámara (camera), las gafas de sol (sunglasses).

Places: el aeropuerto (airport), el hotel (hotel), la playa (beach), la montaña (mountain), el museo (museum).

Travel verbs: viajar (to travel), visitar (to visit), llegar (to arrive), salir (to leave), hacer la maleta (to pack).

Weather: hace calor (it is hot), hace frío (cold), hace sol (sunny), hace viento (windy), llueve (it rains), nieva (it snows).

Transport: el avión (plane), el tren (train), el autobús (bus), el coche (car).

Weather with hace + noun does not change: Hace calor (never 'es calor').

Spanish	English	Spanish	English
el pasaporte	passport	el aeropuerto	airport
la maleta	suitcase	el hotel	hotel
el mapa	map	la montaña	mountain
la cámara	camera	la playa	beach
el museo	museum	el billete	ticket

DID YOU KNOW?

Always check which noun is feminine: la playa, la montaña, la maleta, la cámara. But el mapa is masculine even though it ends in -a.

Check yourself

- [ ] Name five things you put in your suitcase, in Spanish.
- [ ] How do you say 'It is sunny' and 'It is windy'?
- [ ] Which verb means 'to arrive'?
- [ ] Is mapa masculine or feminine?
- [ ] What do you say for 'to pack your suitcase'?

REVISION TASK

Draw your dream holiday and label five places or objects in Spanish with el / la.

LESSON 7

7 The Near Future: Voy a…

Talk about plans with ir + a + infinitive.

Key ideas

Use the near future for plans and intentions: ir (conjugated) + a + infinitive.

ir: yo voy · tú vas · él/ella va · nosotros vamos · ellos van.

Never forget the 'a'! Voy a nadar (not 'voy nadar'). Missing a is one of the most common lost marks in the writing task.

The verb after a stays in the infinitive (ends in -ar, -er or -ir): voy a visitar, vamos a comer, van a salir.

To say you are going to a country, you can use voy a ir a: Voy a ir a España con mi familia.

Examples: Este verano voy a nadar en el mar. ¿Qué vas a hacer mañana? Mis padres van a visitar México.

Person	ir	Near future example
yo	voy	Voy a viajar a España.
tú	vas	Vas a comprar ropa.
él / ella	va	Ella va a visitar el museo.
nosotros	vamos	Vamos a comer tapas.
ellos	van	Van a hacer la maleta.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mañana, este verano, la semana que viene and el año que viene are your clues for the near future.

Check yourself

- [ ] Write the formula for the near future.
- [ ] Conjugate ir in the present tense.
- [ ] Say 'I am going to visit the museum'.
- [ ] What is wrong with Voy comer tapas ?
- [ ] Say 'My parents are going to travel to Peru'.

REVISION TASK

Write five sentences about your plans for the next holiday using voy / vas / va / vamos / van a.

LESSON 8

8 The Past: Fui, Comí, Visité

Say what you did using the preterite of ir/ser, comer and visitar.

Key ideas

Use the preterite for finished actions in the past: ayer (yesterday), anoche (last night), el año pasado (last year), el verano pasado (last summer).

IR and SER share the same forms: fui · fuiste · fue. Context tells you which verb it is. Fui a España = I went to Spain. Fue divertido = It was fun.

COMER (regular -er/-ir): comí · comiste · comió. Ayer comí paella.

VISITAR (regular -ar): visité · visitaste · visitó. Ayer visité la playa.

Near future vs past: voy a ir (I am going to go) is a plan. Fui (I went) already happened. Check the time word first.

Accents matter in the past tense: comí, visité, comió, visitó. Without the accent the word can be a different tense (como = I eat).

Person	ir / ser	comer	visitar
yo	fui	comí	visité
tú	fuiste	comiste	visitaste
él / ella	fue	comió	visitó

DID YOU KNOW?

Little trick: the yo form of the preterite always has an accent on the last letter for regular verbs: comí, visité.

Check yourself

- [ ] Write the three preterite forms of ir/ser.
- [ ] How do you know if fue means 'went' or 'was'?
- [ ] Say 'Yesterday I ate paella.'
- [ ] Say 'Last year I visited Madrid.'
- [ ] Which time word shows you must use the past: mañana or anoche?

REVISION TASK

Write a four-line postcard about a real or imaginary trip last summer, using fui, comí and visité at least once each.

LESSON 9

9 Culture and the Danger Zone

Seasons flip, fashion has two faces, and one verb can get you into trouble.

Key ideas

The weather flip: Spain is in the Northern Hemisphere and Argentina in the Southern, so their seasons are opposite.

Navidad in Spain (winter): cold, coats, scarves and boots. Key tradition: the Cabalgata de Reyes (Three Kings Parade) on 5 January.

Navidad in Argentina (summer): hot and humid, shorts and sandals, an asado (barbecue) outdoors and the pool.

Fast fashion: Spain is a world leader. Zara (founded by Amancio Ortega) brings new designs to its shops twice a week.

Slow fashion: in the Andes (Peru, Bolivia) and Guatemala, indigenous weaving is a handmade art with symbolic meaning.

THE DANGER ZONE: In Spain you can say coger el autobús. In Latin America never say coger: it is vulgar slang. Say tomar: Voy a tomar el metro.

Verb 'to take (a bus)'	Spain	Latin America
Say	coger / tomar	tomar
Example	Voy a coger el metro.	Voy a tomar el metro.
Safe?	Yes (Spain only)	Only with tomar!

DID YOU KNOW?

Exam habit: if the trip is to Mexico City or Buenos Aires, always choose tomar. It is safe everywhere.

Check yourself

- [ ] Why are Christmas and summer together in Argentina?
- [ ] What happens on 5 January in Spain?
- [ ] What is the difference between fast fashion (Zara) and slow fashion (Andean weaving)?
- [ ] Which verb must you avoid in Latin America for taking a bus?
- [ ] Say 'I am going to take the metro' safely for Mexico City.

REVISION TASK

Make a two-column table comparing Navidad in Spain and Argentina: weather, clothes, tradition, food.

LESSON 10

10 Exam Power: Reading and Writing for Full Marks

Know the 40-mark paper and exactly how each mark is earned.

Key ideas

The paper (40 marks, 55 minutes): A Vocabulary 8 · B Grammar 10 · C At the shop 6 · D Reading 8 · E Writing 8. Plan about 40 to 45 minutes and keep the rest for checking.

Reading (D): one mark per answer. A word or short phrase is enough, in English or Spanish. Look for the colour, material, number, country, place, weather and item. Spelling is not marked when the meaning is clear.

Writing (E): four short sentences, 2 marks each: 1 for content (the information asked) and 1 for language (clear Spanish). Simple sentences earn full marks.

Always write the full sentence. A copied starter on its own earns no language mark. Voy a ir a España con mi familia.

Lose the language mark by: a wrong key verb form, a missing a in the near future, or a colour that does not agree with its noun. Accent slips alone do not cost marks.

Your four-sentence formula: 1) Voy a ir a ... con ... 2) Hace ... 3) Llevo un/una ... + colour 4) Voy a + infinitive.

Section	Marks	What to revise
A Vocabulary	8	Lessons 1, 2 and 6
B Grammar	10	Lessons 3, 4, 7 and 8
C At the shop	6	Lesson 5
D Reading	8	Reading Lab
E Writing	8	Writing Lab

DID YOU KNOW?

Match your tense to the question. Where are you going? needs voy a. Where did you go? needs fui a.

Check yourself

- [ ] How many marks are in each of the four writing sentences and how are they split?
- [ ] Name two ways to lose the language mark.
- [ ] Is a short phrase enough in the reading section?
- [ ] Which sections test grammar and how many marks are there in total?
- [ ] Write a full-mark answer to: say what the weather is like.

REVISION TASK

Time yourself: write your four writing sentences for a trip to Peru in under five minutes, then check each against the formula.

FINAL PRACTICE

Final practice

Tick each box when you can answer without looking.

Final practice

- [ ] Write a four-sentence plan for a holiday to Peru: where and who with, the weather, what you wear, one activity.
